 - (h) Expenditure on contribution towards Education Cess;
 - (i) Any other miscellaneous expenditure.
- (3) It is open for the governing body to take a decision to collect fees from students either monthly or quarterly or half yearly. However, the special fee shall be collected only once at the beginning of the academic year.

- (4) The fees collected from the students shall be allocated as to meet the following requirements:-
 - a) 5% of the fees collected shall be earmarked as personal income to the management
 - b) 15% of the fees collected shall be utilized for the maintenance of the institutions towards expenditure involving the building rent, electricity and water charges, stationery etc., required for the Office Payments to be made to menials and auditors, purchase of library books, chemicals, specimens and other material required for the laboratory and expenditure involving the upkeep of the institutions etc.,
 - c) 15% of the fees collected shall be earmarked for the developmental activates of the institution i.e. expenditure involving opening of additional courses, classes, sections and up-gradations of the institutions, construction of additional accommodations, acquiring costly equipment and furniture, purchase of land for the use of the institutions and the like;
 - d) 50% of the fees collected shall be earmarked towards payment of salaries to the staff:
 - e) 15% of the fees collected shall be earmarked as management's contribution towards staff benefits like gratuity, teachers provident fund, Group Insurance scheme etc.,
- (5) The Educational agency shall maintain separate accounts in one or more banks for the amounts allocated for various purposes mentioned above so that the amount allocated for a specific purpose shall not be diverted for another purpose. These accounts opened as specified above shall be operated through joint accounts in the name of the Secretary/Correspondent, management of the Institution and the headmaster/Principal of the institution:
- (6) The amounts falling under items (a) to (e) of sub-rule 4 are subject to inspection and auditing by the Auditors appointed for the purpose by the Governing body.

19) Disciplinary Control:

- (1) The disciplinary powers are vested with the management in general. The appellate authority against the actions of the Management is the competent authority as defined in rule 3 subject to the provisions of the Act:-
 - a) No employee should be kept under suspension by the management except as provided in Section 79 of the Act:
 - b) An employee who is kept under suspension shall be paid subsistence allowance at one half of the salary drawn by him immediately before suspension plus allowances admissible on such salary:
 - c) An order of suspension may at any time be revoked by the next higher authority to the competent authority:
 - d) In addition to the penalties specified in sub-section (1) of Section 79 of the Act the following penalties may also be imposed against any employee for negligence of duty, disobedience of orders, misconduct violation of code of conduct or for other sufficient cause:-

- i) Fine
 - ii) Censure
 - iii) Withhold of increments of promotion,
 - iv) Reduction to a lower rank in seniority or reduction in the time scale of pay.
 - v) Recovery from pay the whole or part of the pecuniary losses caused to the Government or to the institutions by negligence or breach of orders;
- e) No employee shall be dismissed, removed or reduced in rank by an authority subordinate to the management.
- f) In every case where it is proposed to impose any of the penalties specified, the ground on which the action is proposed shall be reduced to the form of a definite charge or charges shall be communicated. The charges shall be communicated to the person charged together with statement of allegations and their basis and of any other circumstances leading to the charges.

The person charged shall be required within a reasonable time to put a written statement of defense and to state whether he desires an oral enquiry or only to be heard in person for the charges. The charged person shall be permitted to peruse the records and take extracts from such records as he may specify, provided that the management may for reasons to be recorded in writing refuse such permission, if in its opinion such records are not relevant for the purpose or it is against the interest of the institution to allow access thereto. If an oral enquiry is desired by the person charged the management shall appoint an Enquiry Officer who shall be superior in rank to the charged person to conduct enquiry. At that enquiry oral evidence may be heard as to such of the allegations as are not admitted and the person charged shall be entitled to cross examine the witness to give evidence in person and to have such witness called as he may wish, provided that the authority conducting the enquiry may for special and valid reasons to be recorded in writing refuse to call a witness;

After the enquiry has been completed the person charged shall be entitled to put in, if he so desires, any further written statement, of his defense. If no oral enquiry is held and a person charged desires to be heard in person, a personal hearing shall be given to him by the authority directed by the management;

The Proceedings shall contain a sufficient record of the evidence and the statement of the findings and the grounds thereof.

- g) After examination of the report of the Enquiry Officer or where no enquiry has been held on consideration of the statement of defense of the person charged and other circumstances of the case, the management shall issue a show cause notice of not less than two weeks to the charged officer enclosing the report of the Enquiry Officer. After considering the explanation the management may impose any of the penalties.

Provided that in the case of dismissal, removal or reduction in rank the management should get prior approval of the authority or officer under sub-section (1) of Section 79 of the Act;

- h) The above provisions shall not apply where the authority to impose the penalty is satisfied for reasons to be recorded in writing that it is not reasonable/practicable to hold an enquiry or to inform the employee in writing of the allegations or charges on which action proposed to be taken or where it is proposed to impose the penalty on the ground of conduct which lead to his conviction or on a criminal charge involved moral turpitude. In such cases, the management shall obtain prior permission from the competent authority.

20) Submission of Annual Administration Report by the Educational Agency:

The Educational agency shall submit the annual administration report in the prescribed proforma to the competent authority for very financial year by the 30th September at the latest. Such report shall be supported by the audited statement of accounts of the school duly audited by Chartered Accountant. Separate accounts shall be maintained for each school.

Similarly the educational agency, which is running more than one school shall also submit such returns within the stipulated time to the competent authority.

21) Powers to Relax Rules:

The Government may relax any of the provisions in these rules involving any undue hardship to any educational agency or in public interest.
